JUST GOT

BETTER!

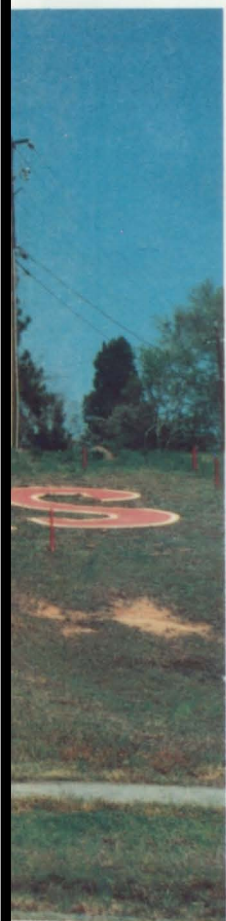

Being a student at Northeast High school consist of being a dedicated Raider. To be a Raider all you have to do is pay attention to Northeast's immediate surroundings.

The administrators help students develop a sense of Raiderism here in Raider country. A true Raider applies himself to his studies and pushes himself academically. Northeast demonstrates its commitment to academics by offering a wide range of activites for students.

When students exhibit real school spirit, everyone wins. That's what being a part of Northeast is about!

SENIORS

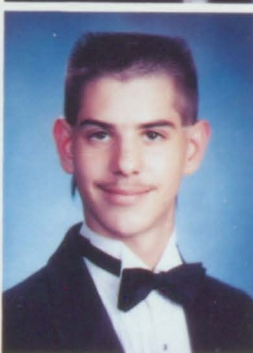

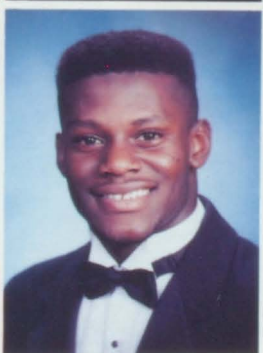

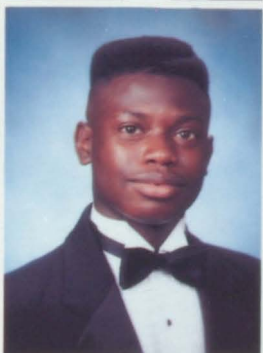

Don't Stop
Get It, Get It!!!

Senior Spirit

Senior class president, Kendra Pollock, and vice-president, Jacobi Barron, walk off with the Spirit Chain Award at the Homecoming Pep Rally. After three years of hard work and true dedication, Seniors certainly feel that they deserve to be the Spirit Chain winners. "There was a lot of hard work put into it, and there was no way that we were going to lose to the Juniors! No matter what tricks or stunts those underclassmen pulled, the Seniors prevailed as I knew we would," said Senior class vice-president, Jacobi Barron. Seniors purchased links from DECA Club representatives for $.10 each to form their massive chain of red, black and gold. After coming in second place their Junior year, this victory was well worth the wait. Senior Raquel Jackson said, "We're the real Seniors and our spirit this year motivated us to try harder to win." — LaSha Cofer

SENIORITIS

Senioritis-noun; a sickness one gets when they know it is time to go on with life. Found in whom: Anyone considered a senior.

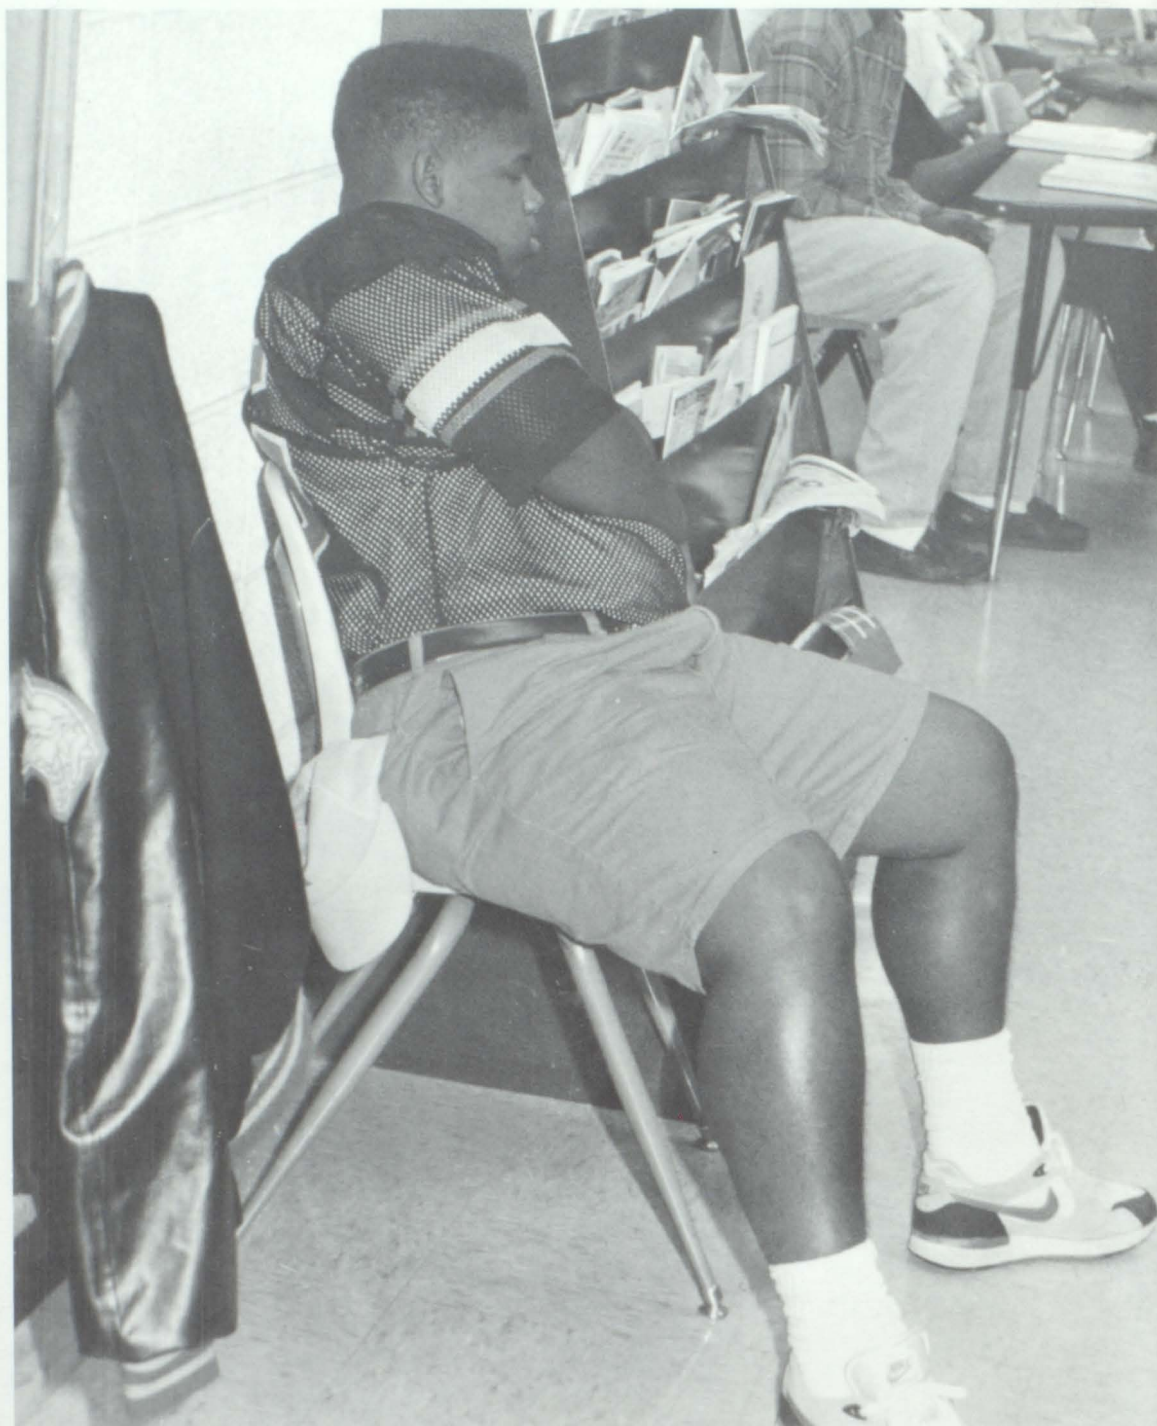

Senioritis is considered to be a feeling of hyperness to any reigning senior. I wonder where it comes from? I feel it comes from the former graduating class party. You then know that they have stepped aside and it's time for you to step in and take your place.

With senioritis, you always want to party, and do anything fun. Sometimes senioritis can get you into trouble. With this disease you feel you can do things others can't do.

So if you have senioritis your cure should be partying, joking, and having fun with your friends. But take my advice, don't have too much fun or you'll have to go through senioritis another year.

Just cooling may be the cure for Chris Roberts.

For Larry Hollings, sleeping is his main cure for senioritis.

Holly Person says, "no problem, I have a cure for this."

Seniors Nicole Pryor and Brentz Curry say "Don't stop! Get it! Get it!"

Gayla Jones and Anthony Pitts show their senioritis by partying.

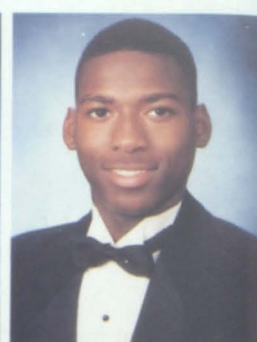

Donald Howard shows he is proud to be a victim of senioritis.

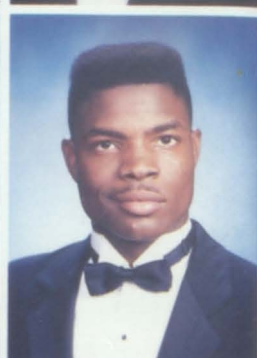

Eric Lindsey says, "I gotta have it!"

ROAD TO BEING A SENIOR

Ramona Rhoden introduces an assembly speaker.

When we started as Freshman here at Northeast, we were scared to face what we knew to be the toughest year in high school. If you knew no one it was hard to find your way around because the Seniors would send you in the wrong direction and really give you a hard time. Once you made it over, which means becoming a Sophomore, you feel like a veteran and then do to Freshman what was done to you.

Being a Sophomore was easy, because you weren't a Freshman. You've made friends but it's time to start digging into those books. Sophomore year was the year to make a name for ourselves and to work hard to make the grade.

JUNIORS! Finally being assured that we were upper class man. This is the year we did just enough work to get by and spent the rest of our time having fun. We focus on out doing the Seniors and being the hypiest class! Our Junior year is the year we prepare to be Seniors and that's all.

Seniors at last! We're eager to leave but afraid to let go of what we've been through for four years. The year we say good-bye to childhood. Everything that didn't matter before now does. We regret not working harder and we wish we could do it all over again but we're happy that we don't have to. We've realized that we'll be in the real world.

It takes more than just a 70 and good conduct to make it. We can no longer, "Just get by!" This year Seniors show a positive attitude for succeeding. We've taken what we've learned throughout these four years and what we've learned from Seniors in the past to become the best examples to underclassmen ever to come through Northeast. When we've received our diplomas, the world will receive us, the future! — Shearleeta Dean

SENIOR CAREERS

This is the time for seniors to decide what they will do after they graduate. This is a very tough and complex decision. A lot of people, however have made up their minds. For instance, my plans are to attend Valdosta State College and major in computer engineering.

Unlike myself, on the other hand, I'm not the only one planning to go to college. Sr. Eric Braswell knows that he will be attending FAMU or Tuskegee but his major is yet undecided. Sr. Gayla Jones says, "I want to help preserve the earth. That's why I want to become an ecologist." But she plans on minoring in Music because she truly loves it.

One Senior has a very different idea about a career: Lailana Mitchell's dream is to become a model, either runway or print. She's attending modeling school in Atlanta for 20 weeks. To my surprise, she told me that you don't even have to go to school. I asked her what made her decide to become a model. She replied, "My motivation came from my height and plus I like to design clothes."

There are numerous career choices that can be explored. Most of them will be successful; others, on the other hand, will be changed.

My advice to you is never let your guard down. There are so many obstacles in life that will bring you down. Remember to get up, brush yourself off, and start that path again.

To all the Seniors, I wish you the best in life.-Lucinda Thompson

$$ Something Good Needs Money $$

Being a senior is not all fun and games. True enough, there are senior privileges, for seniors only, but there are some crucial senior expenses. Often it seems when you finish paying for one thing, it's in your pocket for another. "It is very expensive being a senior," replied Christina Hollingshed, "but for all the fun coming along with it, it's worth it!"

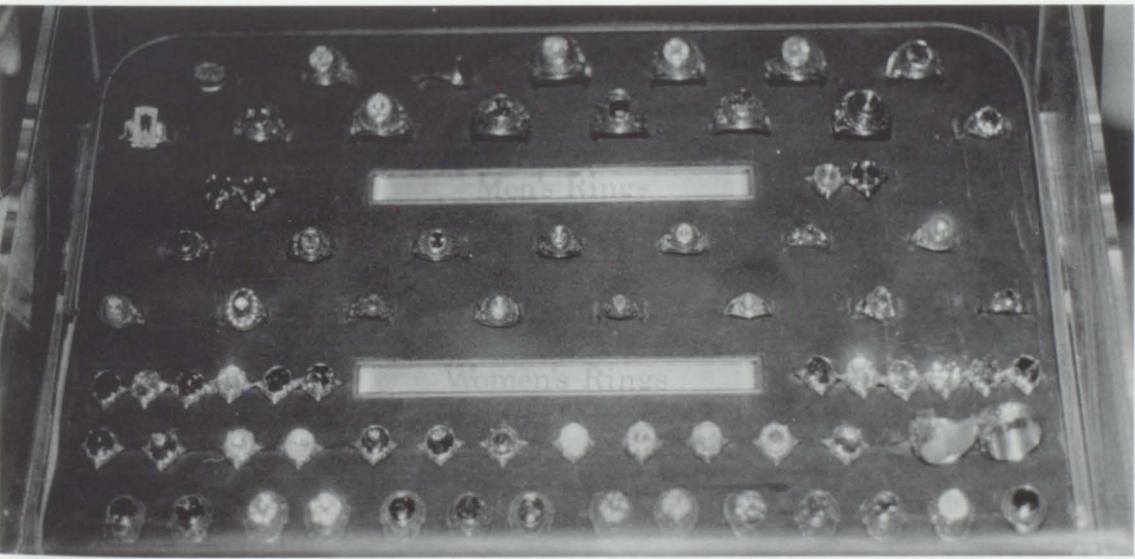

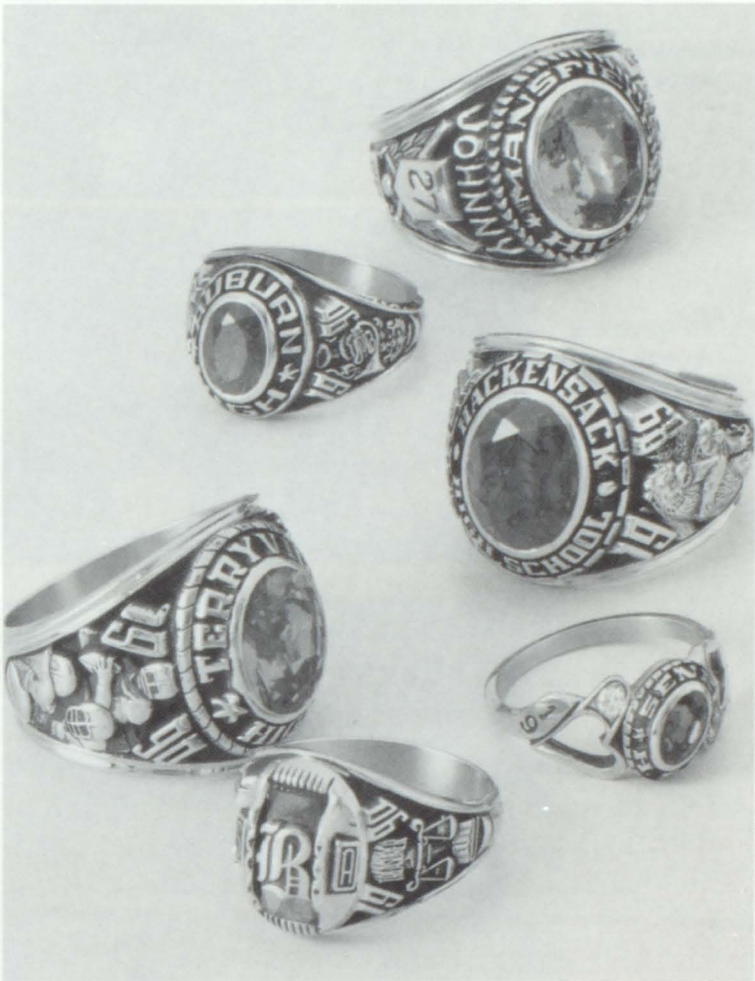

Let's start here:

$12.00 sitting fee for Senior Class Pictures.

Then you have to send off and pay for your pictures. In addition, we have our senior cruise, class rings, class shirts, and as the list grows larger, our wallets continue to shrink. "I believe that they are asking for a little too much. From junior dues to color fee, I feel they're trying to take advantage of us," stated Gayla Jones, "we're suppose to have priviledges but it's not a priviledge because of all these expenses." In a way it can be too much, but with other opinions, it is much different. For Kendra Pollock it's like, "I feel that they're high, but in order for us to have activities you have to pay. The most outrageous expense is my class pictures." So it's all in how you look at it and what you want to do. If you want to have a cheap, dull senior year, fine go ahead. But for an exciting, and funfilling one, get a job and start paying.-LaTanya Singleton

New class rings cost much more these days.

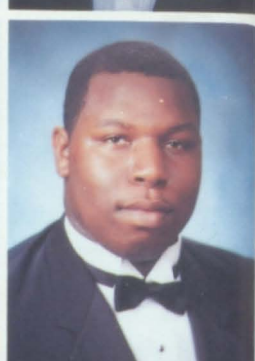

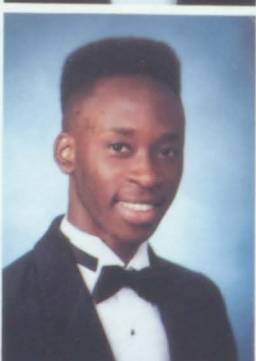

Class rings come in all styles, but still you pay the cost.

Jr. Kale Johnson shows his school spirit on the day of the pep rally.

How was your Jr. Year?

How was your junior year compared to your freshman year?

Benetta Chester—"Don't have to put up with the same wise freshman jokes as we did our ninth grade year."

Quincy Cabiness—"I've learned more things about other people and myself that I didn't know my ninth grade year."

Adina Garrett—"This is the hypest year that has been since I've been here. My ninth grade year made me realize that I was no longer a young buck."

Eulanda Waller—"This year I feel that I've matured more than my ninth grade year, mainly in my studies."

Rashaan Lee—"I've been hangin' out more and been more active in sports and my study habits have gotten better."

Damon Hollingsworth—"It's been more peaceful with a pleasant atmosphere. It makes you want to come to school to learn."

Algernon Booker—"I get more respect and priviledges than my ninth grade year."

Chauncey Harden—"It's isn't as exciting as it was when I first came here but I'm used to it now."

Administration

sees many changes

Mr. David Dillard, complex principal, saw many changes here at Northeast over the summer.

The English teachers moved from Lasseter to Mark Smith and the math teachers moved from Mark Smith to Lasseter. Now math and science are together and so are history and English.

This year also saw Mrs. Kathi Tyson, math teacher and Mr. Dennis Lewis, English teacher leave and a number of new teachers come to Northeast.

Mr. Dillard, with the help of Mrs. Eleanor Sikes, Lasseter principal; Mr. Willie Green, Mark Smith principal; Mrs. Sherry Mosley, associate principal; and Mr. William Grant, vocational supervisor; saw this year become one of Northeast best.-Lucinda Thompson

New rules

Coach Fred Persley-Teachers get paid by how many students attend supervision. That shows, if 200 students don't go to supervision for one day and $100 is spent for each child, then $20,000 is lost in that one day from Northeast.

Mrs. Williams- I am against it and feels it's cheaper to buy textbooks and desks than to buy teachers.

Mrs. Hicks- Teacher shouldn't be based on the number of students attending school. Other consideration should be taken other than ADA.

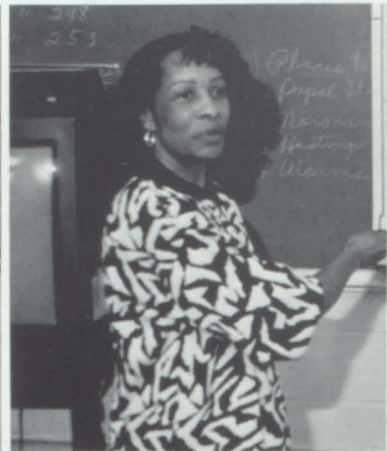

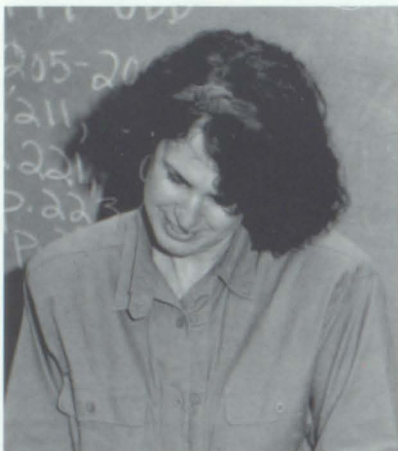

Mr. Johnson-ADA is very important. ADA is reducing the number of teachers. Next year the teacher population will be short, therefore, classes will become overcrowded.

Mr. John Simmons- It affects large classes with dropouts and absentees. Next year there will be crowded classes. Teachers lose jobs due to students showing up absent on roll. I disagree because it affects the number of teachers for the new year. Students don't come to school after realizing they are not going to pass anyway.

New Policy

An old but new subject that particularly grabs ones attention is Average Daily Attendance, better known to teachers as ADA.

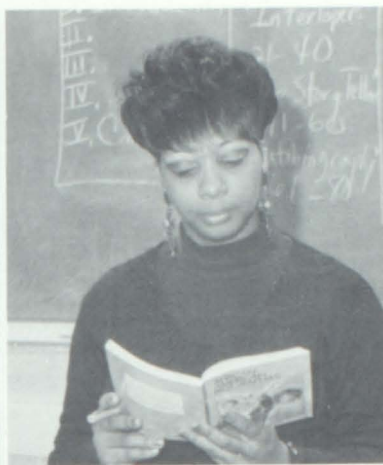

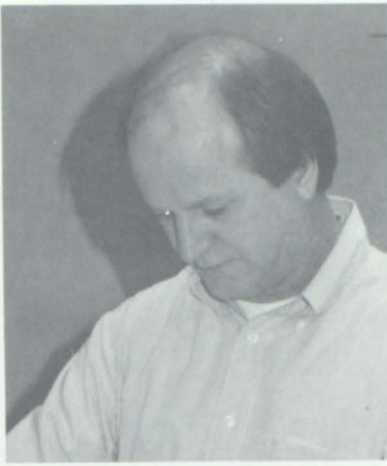

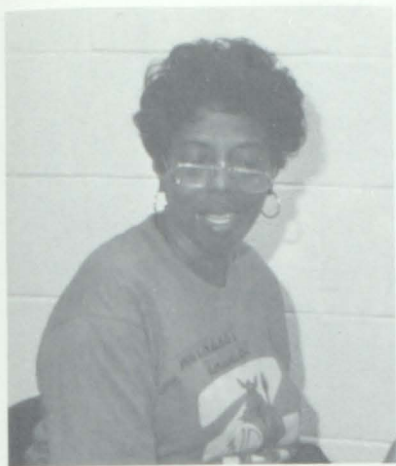

Students don't think much about it but their attendance actually affects the number of teachers we have from year to year. This means that coming to Supervision is necessary and not just to listen to the pledge or alma mater and to hear your supervision teacher complain about the noise level.

There is a record kept daily of student attendance and at the end of each year, it is reviewed to report an average of how many students come to school. For example a classroom may be allowed 32 students but only 28 actually attend class. This information is recorded and the following year only 28 students are allowed in this same classroom.

Well, what if 32 students show up? There is an overcrowded classroom and no where to place them. Why not send them to a class not so crowded? That can't be done because when the number of students decreases so does the number of teachers. The teachers are either transferred or fired. A few teachers were interviewed to voice their opinion.-Cassandra Massey/ Shearletta Grey

Student Council

The student body has to be represented and the organization to provide this representation is the Student Council. The purpose of their group is to protect the interest of the students in correlation with the administration and faculty. Homecoming week, assemblies, and school related activities are the responsibility of Student Council.

Ramona Rhoden, President; Tamika Bryant, Secretary; Cassandra Massey, Vice President(not shown)

JCC

The Junior City Council is a service organization consisting of teens from all the public and private high schools in Macon. The Council addresses the problems teens face and tries to find ways to help resolve the problems. The Council offers Teen Forums to give teens a chance to be vocal. The Council is a link between the teen community and the city government. Not only do the Council members initiate programs, but they also volunteer in the community.

Row I: Ramona Rhoden, Tamika Bryant, Chaquita Martin
Row II: Charmaine Madison, Eric Lindsey, Marjorie Williams

DECA

DECA is a youth organization linked with the school system to provide positive activities for members. Through DECA, youths learn how to communicate with others and those who are involved in Co-op develop better skills in their work field through competitions in DECA. There is a Career Development Conference held each year. First students compete in their work field on a regional level. Those who place first through third continue on to the state level. Those who place in state continue on to the national level. Winners receive certificates, trophies, and other prizes. Also, through DECA members serve as volunteers for various community activities.

Chorus

The chorus at Northeast High contributes a lot in the special programs we have at our school. Often at special assemblies, the chorus electrifies our ears with their beautiful music. They sing from folk to rhythm and blues songs. The chorus is not large in number but quality is always better than quantity. Our chorus consists of three groups: beginning chorus, advanced chorus, and the show chorus. This year we welcome a new choral director, Mr. Fitzgerald.

Row I: Jeanette Ford, Bernard Womble, Kesha Davis, Tiffany Manson, Tracy Mintz, Christa McMichael, Tarica Saxby
 Row II: Kristina Zackery, Nalencia Flagg, Amy Coon, Dana Walker, Cheletta Brown, Lashonda Curry, April Glawson

KEEP IT COMIN'

"We are the Raiders and we are proud....." The cheerleaders chant this to the large crowd appearing at the games. This cheerleading season has especially been a challenging year. We were there with the football team while they were on their way to the victory of being City Champs. The cheerleaders this year have worked hard at making the season outstanding not only for the players but for themselves as well.

Cheerleaders received this year four new additions. They are: Colitha Noltan, Stacey Archer, Sharral Moss, and Tracy Person. Although at first it was hard for them to catch on they tried and did their best. Being a cheerleader takes a lot of cooperation, responsibility, respect, and pride. It also takes a lot of confidence and braveness.

As a cheerleader myself I know that all these good qualities add up to great things and as you know Northeast Varsity Cheerleaders have "Always Got that Radier Spirit." — Arthalia S. Grey

The Diplomats

The purpose of this organization is to present chosen pupils to represent Northeast High School. These students are involved in different community services throughout Macon. Some of these events are the Macon Tour of Homes, Kids Yule Love, and they will be participating in the Cherry Blossom Festival through the Heritage Foundation. Other students are urged to participate in the upcoming year. The advisors of this organization are Mrs. Robinson, and Mr. Johnson.

FBLA

FBLA's goals are to develop competent, aggressive business leadership. The organization encourages members in the development of the individual, which contributes to the improvement of home, business, and community life. FBLA has a project every month for the school and the community. It has adopted the East Macon Recreation Center where members assist youths by tutoring and other things. This organization is 55 members strong, and open to all students. Members attended a state convention in Atlanta.

The Jazzettes

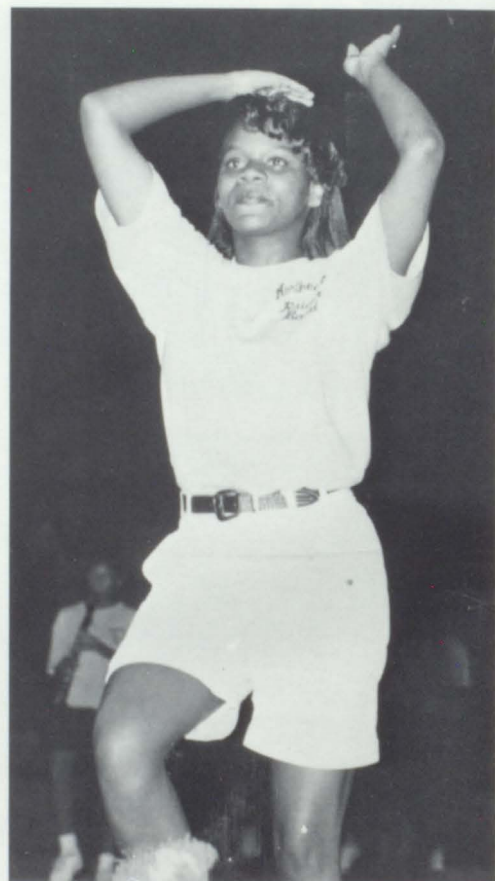

The Jazzettes are a unique group of females that show exquisite talent in the art of dancing. They provide entertainment and help to "color" the band during football season. Although, their first priority is to dance halftime, they act as a sort of cheerleading squad in the stands, boosting the crowd and urging the team to victory. They don't always receive the recognition and support they deserve for all of their hard work but, it doesn't take away from their superb performances. "There is no feeling like that dancin' feeling." This year's captain is Shearletta Grey and co-captain Latanya Singleton. The advisor is Ms. Gloria Aaron.

Jazzettes Erical Hill, Deaneer Rutland, Nicole Pryor, Chelsea May, Tammie Porter, Dana Turk, and Latanya Singleton show their enthusiasm.

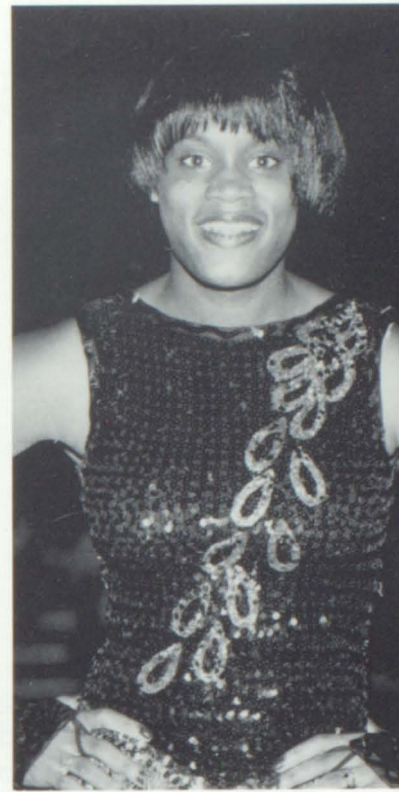

Jazzettes Trisha Person, Josquitta Finney, Dana Turk, Latanya Singleton, Erical Hill, Chelsea May, Shearletta Grey, Nicole Pryor, Lakesha Calhoun, Charmekia Pertillo, and Shondra Jacobs are featured before the band at a pep rally.

The captain of the Jazzettes, Shearletta Grey, displays her dancing ability.

Raiders Cross Country

Could you run for two miles or more for two hours, three days a week? A lot of people could not, but the dedicated members of the Cross Country Team do it and actually enjoy it. But it's not just a love for running that motivates these athletes, it's also about supporting the school's athletic program and showing school spirit. Many of them, such as star runner Keith Morgan, would like to run professionally and perhaps one day compete in the Olympics.

Mr. Brooks gives last minute advice before a meet.

WHOOOP!! There it is! Something good just got better, and still going....

Last season the Northeast Varsity Football team made a complete turn around by changing their record from 2-8 to 5-5, proving to many of their fans that they could do better. This wouldn't have happened if it had not been for their new coach, Mr. Steve Edwards, the football team's hardwork, and the help of the other coaches.

The Raiders took it a step further by erasing the negative thoughts from their minds ending the 91-92 season with 9 wins and 3 loses. Other accomplishments included City Champs, first runner up in the Region 2AAAA play-off, first round state-play-off game, and most recorded wins in the history of the school. There were also some outstanding individual achievements. Rico Council was honored as Running Back of the Week, along with Micheal Barron, and Derrick Caple. Chris Harris, Micheal Womack, and Jarvis Moffett were also honored as lineman of the week.

The Raiders are very proud because SOMETHING GOOD JUST GOT BETTER!

V. Girls Basketball

The Raiderettes have played their very best this year with a win of 22 and a lost of 1. The Raiderettes were defeated by Southeast with a score of 53 to 48. "That was a real close game", says Junior Alicia Wilson. The Raiderettes were undefeated after that close game.

The Raiderettes took on the victory and became Sub Regional Champs. The Raiderettes were lead by Junior Shenita Wilson. She was crowned Miss Basketball of 1992.

All the players this year were one of a kind. The team would like to say a special farewell to all the Senior players who are about to move on in life. You did a great job and helped to keep the Raider spirit alive. The Varisty Girls Basketball team showed that SOMETHING GOOD HAS ALWAYS BEEN THE BEST!!!

Alicia Wilson goes to battle for the ball.

Front row: S. Thomas, B. Chester, T. Mims, P. Goolsby, S. Wilson, N. Woodford, and T. Daniely.
 Second row: Coach A. Copeland, D. Dennis, T. Goolsby, K. Pitts, A. Hill, A. Hancock, B. Bailey, G. McClellan, A. Wilson, E. Waller, T. Person, E. Vinson, L. Jackson, and Coach J. Whitaker.

Junior Eulanda Waller goes for a lay-up.

Senior Natasha Woodford shoots the one hander.

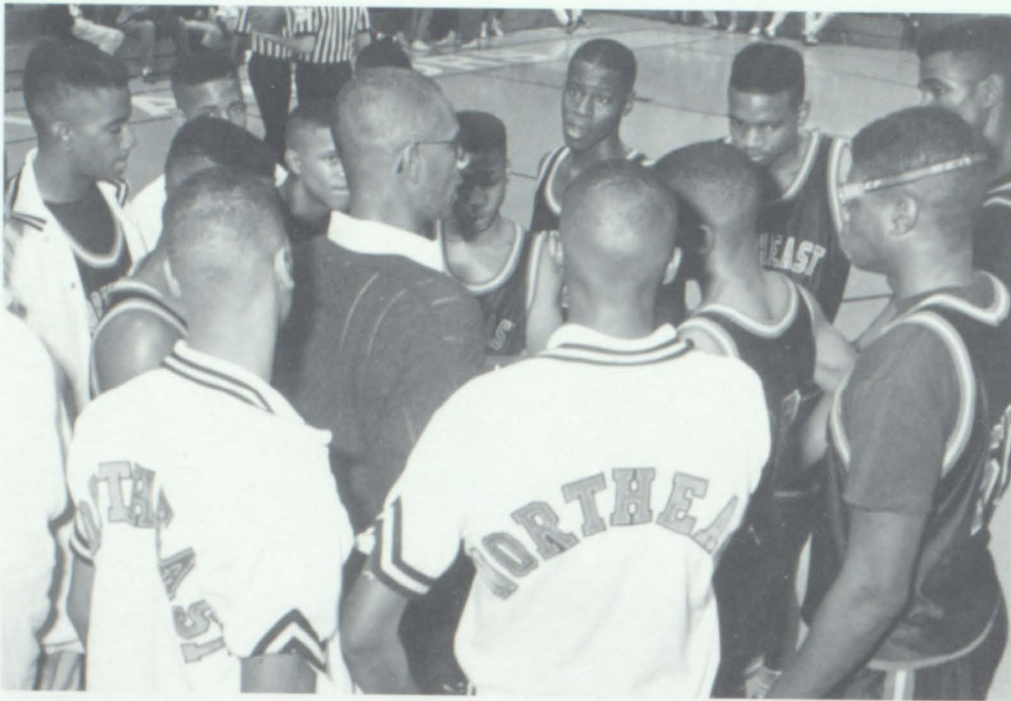

Senior Takeela Mims concentrates hard on her aim.

Junior Shenita Wilson is crowned Miss Basketball.

The Hoop Dome

Coach Johnson takes time out to talk strategies with the players. Defeat and defense . . . just the bottom line.

Varsity Basketball players spend long hours at practice strengthening physical skills, learning game strategies and developing a sense of teamwork. This really paid off for our Varsity Boys this year.

There's always a force to be reckoned with in boys' basketball. The Raiders turned in a solid 12-18 season performance. The Raiders took the opposing teams to a real "Hoop Dome". The Raiders finished 1st in the region. The team was lead by Reginald Harris.

A team no one expected to get beyond the early rounds reached the final round. However, the team lost in the final round but in spirit the Ne Raiders came out on top.

Ready to go beat and defeat, the Northeast Raiders run out on the court with support from their fans.

Nothing Better Than NE Tennis

The NE Varsity Tennis Team had a successful year finishing with a 4:4 record (girls). In the singles region tournament qualifiers were Eric Lindsey, Carlos Reynolds, and Cassandra Massey. Three of the four competitors advanced to the second round. Varsity Tennis girls awards included No.1 ranked Cassandra Massey and Kendra Pollock No.2.

Varsity Track

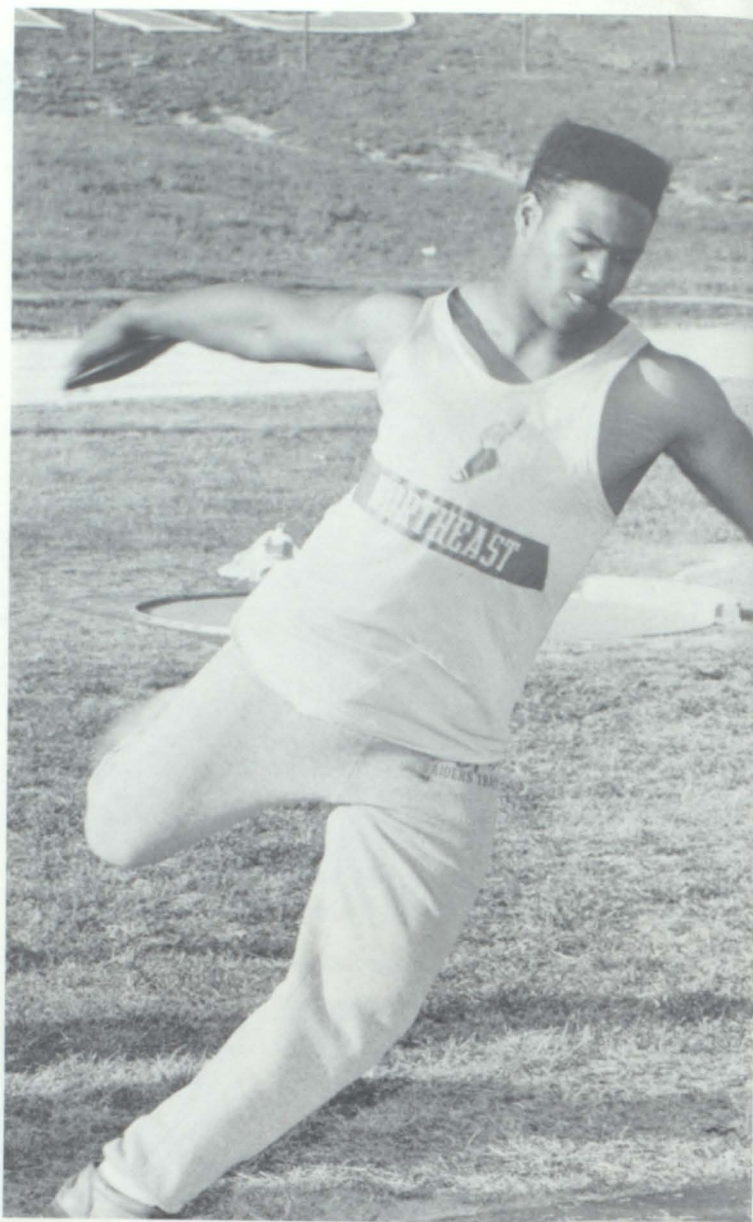

The Northeast Girls Varsity track team does it again by taking the City Champs title, second place in the region and sixth in the state.

To capture the city championship title, they defeated the cross town rivals SW, SE, and Central. The Raiderettes made it the state finals. Led by junior Shenita Wilson and senior Latissimus Jackson, they accumulated 950 points.

The Varisty Boys Track team was lead by senior Micheal Barron. They also captured the City Champs title, first place in the region, and made it to the state. This year's teams, boys and girls, did a terrific job on showing Northeast's athletic abilities. This certainly shows that "SOMETHING GOOD JUST GOT BETTER!!"

Look at Eric Daniely's determination to win the long jump.

LA TANYA,

You've been a joy and inspiration to your family. Now as you go on to college — remember the family value system you've always believed in.

LOVE,
Mom, Dad and Family

Cindy,

This is your last year of high school. A lot of obstacles are ahead for you, but we have the faith that will overcome them.

We love you and congratulations.

Love,
Mom,
Dad, and Kim

LaSha,

You have proven to be a most outstanding young lady in which I know will make the best out of life. Reach high and keep God on your side.

Love, Mom

American Education Week

Judge W. Lewis Sands gives a speech at the program.

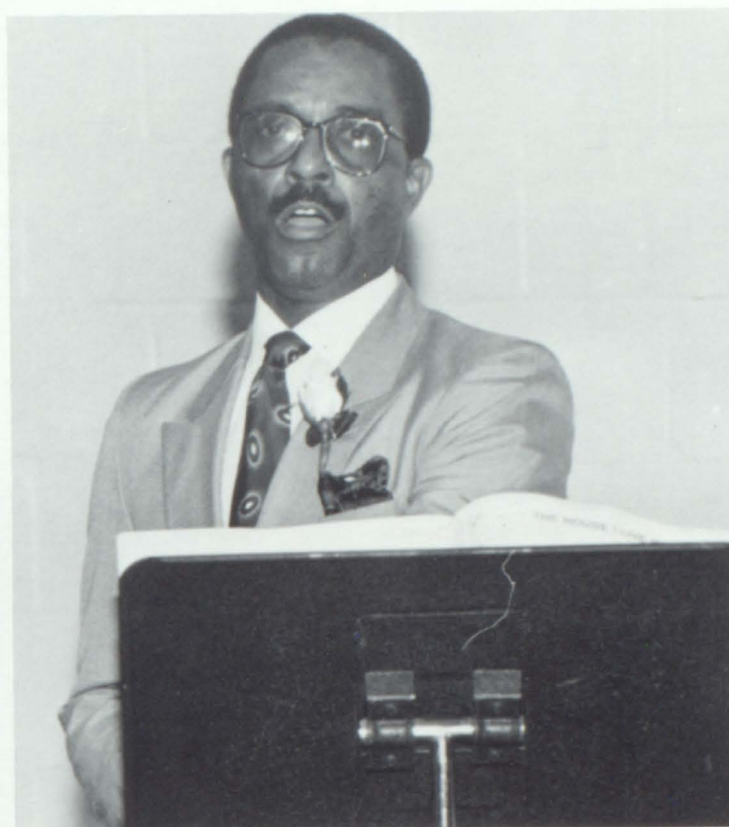

A school project was done for American Education Week.

Senior Rendell Jackson says the pledge with the audience.

Judge W. Lewis Sands and Reverend Terence Gray were speakers at the program.

Frank Tompkins gives us a crowd pleaser.

Northeast students receive certificates for Social Studies questions.

Akemi Skelton and Phyllia Butler, as Color Guards, start off the program.

A Year in Review Scholars' Night

Senior Eric Lindsey receives an award from Mr. Johnson during Scholars' Night.

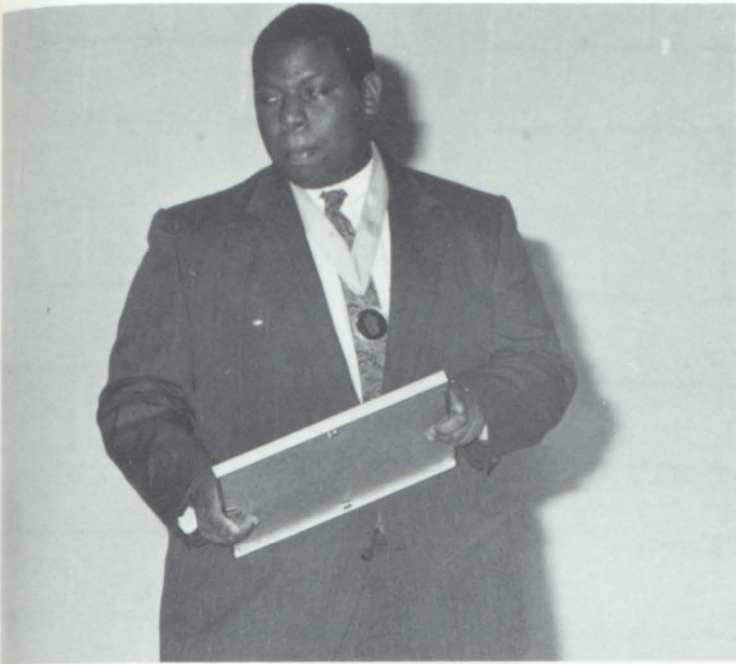

Senior Ramona Rhoden receives an award from Mr. Johnson on Scholars' Night.

Sr. Kesia Hodges receives a scholarship on Scholars' Night.

Manika Fitzpatrick receives an award for maintaining an A average in Science.

Sr. Keith Smith receives an award.

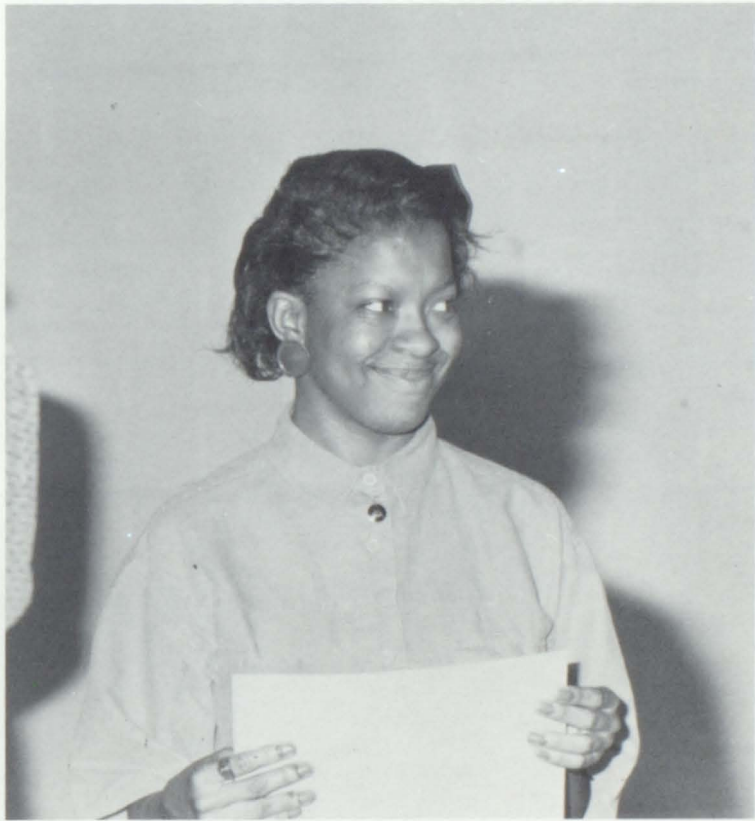

Sr. Tina Blassingame receives an award.

Sr. Tonya Alexander receives a plaque.

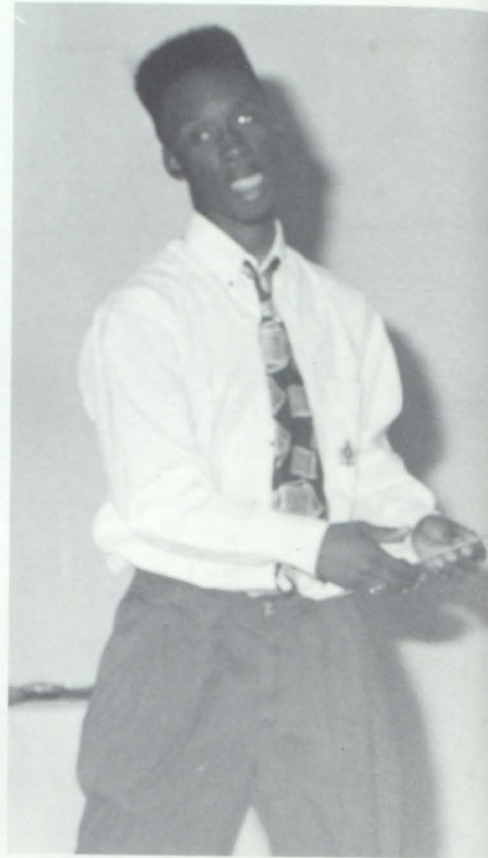

Mr. Johnson gives a welcome at the beginning of Scholars' Night.

MARDI GRAS

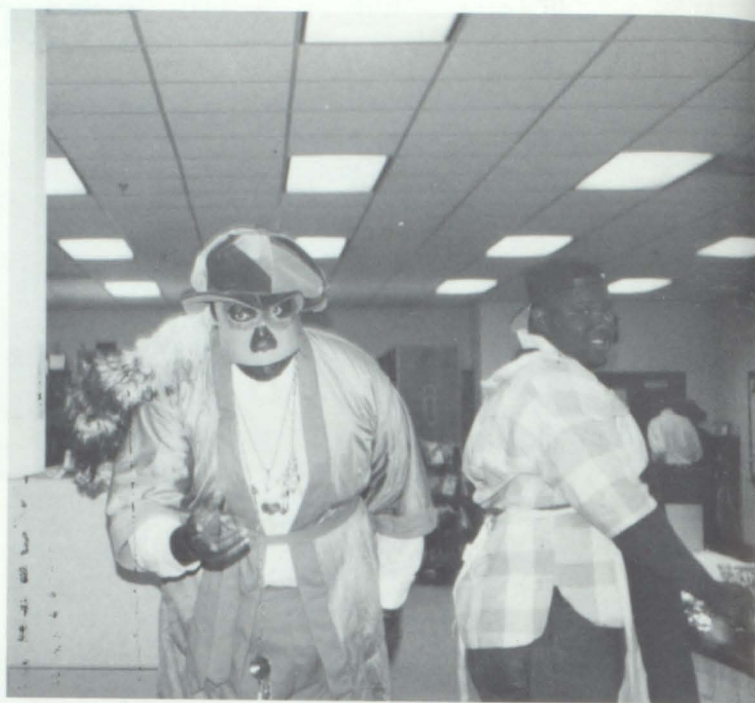

During the last week of February just before final exams the second quarter, the foreign language students joined together to celebrate the Mardi Gras season. This event, which is quite renowned along the Southeastern coastal cities of the United States, was an attempt by the students to promote the appreciation for multiculturalism.

As one of the features of the Mardi Gras affair, students and faculty members were encouraged to don exotic costumes. It is well known that in a Mardi Gras celebration that no costume is too outlandish. You can become whomever or whatever you so desire.

Another feature of Mardi Gras is food. The foreign language students joined in with the CVAE and the food service students to prepare and enjoy some very exotic foods in the New Orleans style. All of the food preparation was supervised by Mrs. Gwendolyn Crafter, head of the CVAE and food service students.

The entire affair proved to be so successful that the foreign language department has decided to make this event an annual occurrence.

Credit for the inception and the coordinating of the festivity must be given to Jacobi Barron, a very astute and conscientious third year student of Spanish.

A disguised guest formally greets fellow students.

The cooks seem to be pleased with themselves!

The chef steps out of the kitchen to see if everyone is enjoying themselves.

No one wants to stop eating.

Racquel Jackson, Tammy Porter, Ramona Rhoden, and Jacobi Barron say "Hats off to the chef!"

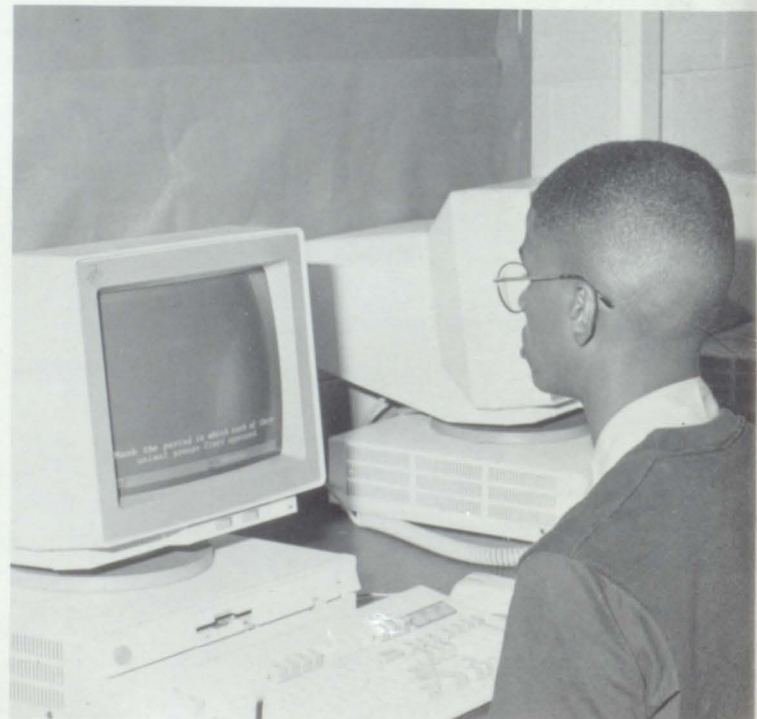

EDUNETICS...

Sr. Ramona Rhoden and Mrs. Grynkeiwich cut the ribbon at the opening ceremony. A student programs the new Edunetics system.

A.P. Biology students work on newly installed computer systems.

A Step into the Future

Northeast High School will have a renovation in education. Future education at N.E. will give students the opportunity to learn Math and Science through the use of High Tech computers.

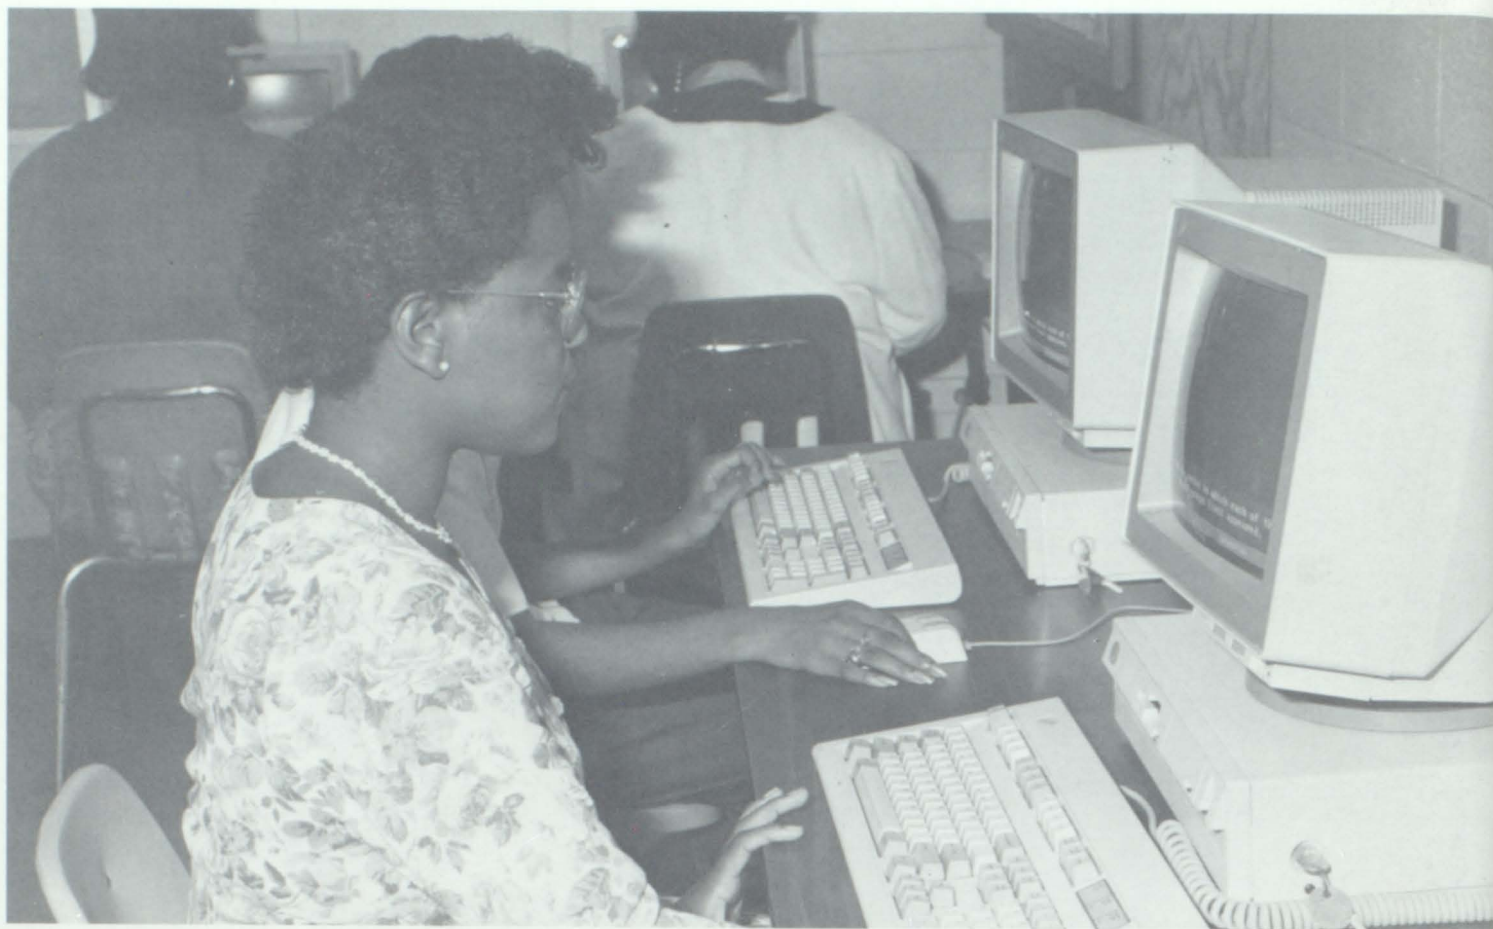

Mrs. Fultz and Mrs. Booker assist Latissimus Jackson as she works with the computer.

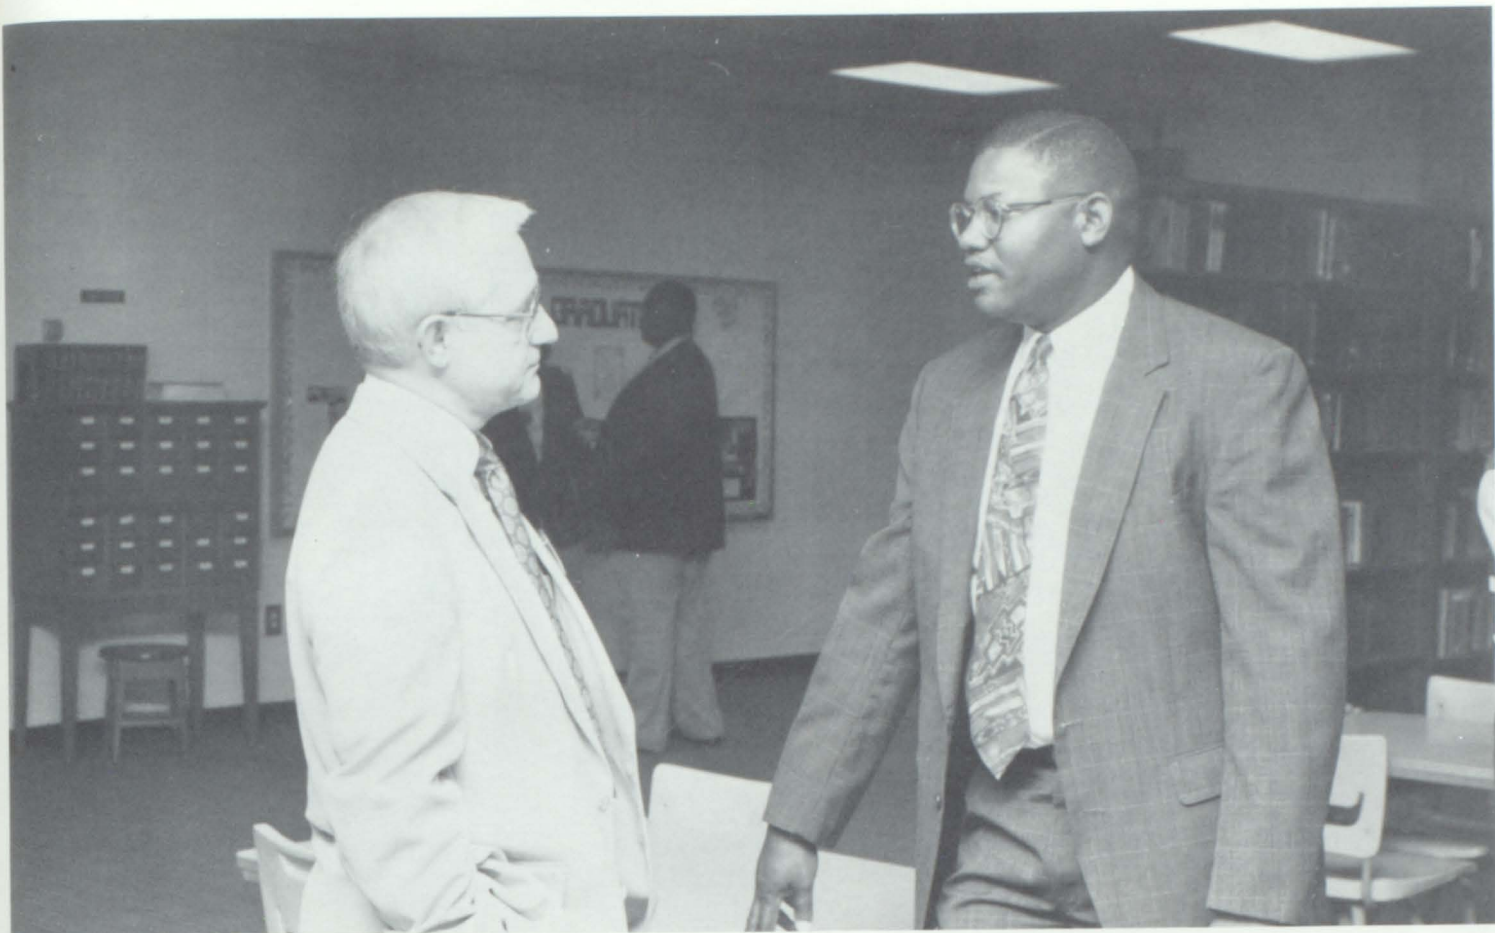

Scholars Keith Smith and Marcus Yarbrough greet speakers.

Mrs. Grykewich speaks on the purpose of Edunetics in the school system.

Prom King and Queen of 1992

Seniors Candace Baldwin and Cedric Jones

“If Only For One Night”

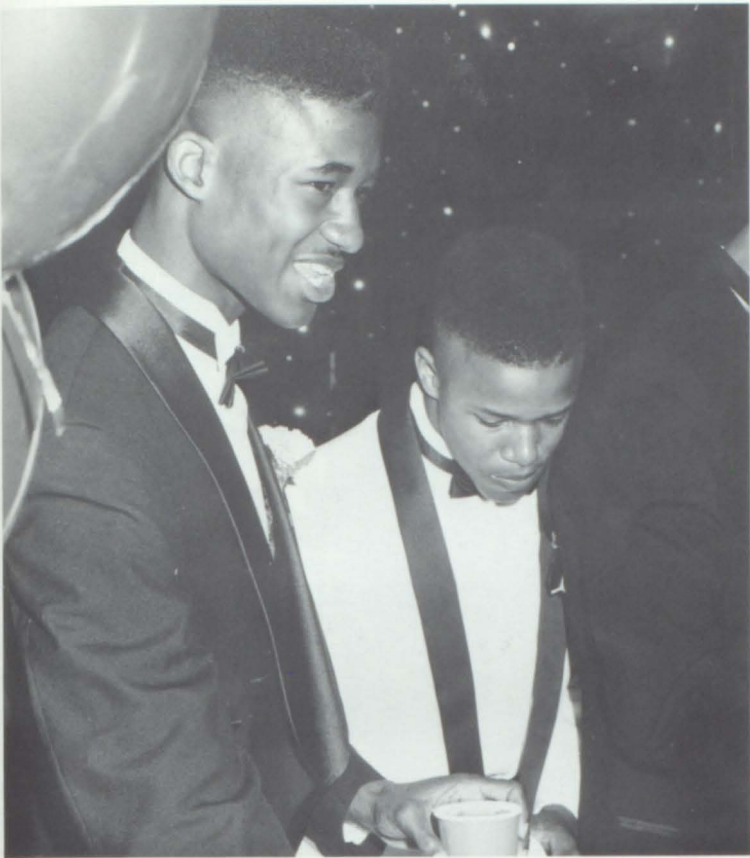

The Northeast High School Junior Senior prom was held May 22, 1992 at 8 p.m. This special event took place in the Coliseum Monument Room. The theme was “If Only For One Night” and the colors were emerald, green, purple, and gold.

When you first walked in the place was filled with balloons and the music was going. However, the prom really didn't get going until Seniors, Eric Copeland, Cedric Jones, Rod Glover, and Jermaine Robinson came in ready to party. Then the real fun began.

The Senior leadout took place and at the end of the prom as the song “If Only For One Night” was played.

It's So Hard....

Getting prepared for that final walk!

Seniors march in for the final step of high school.

Principle, Mr. Johnson, lead administrators in at the graduation.

To Say Goodbye.....

Seniors listen attentively on their graduation night.

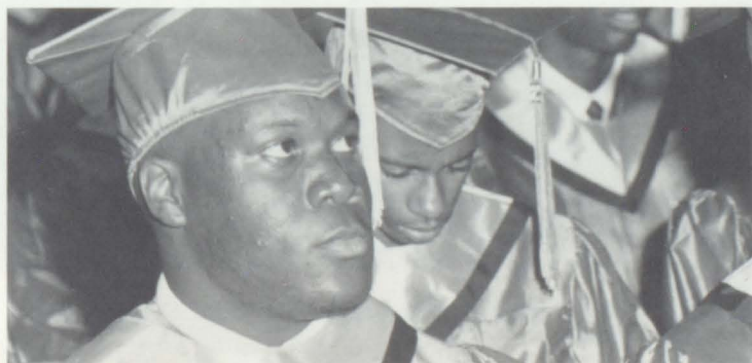

Seniors wait for their names to be called.

Seniors are very happy that their days of High School are over.

Senior, Jim Baldwin has a few thoughts of his own during graduation.

To....

The Class of 1992 proudly switch their tassels to prove they are a graduated senior.

Graduates are showing a smile of relief for 12 years of hard work.

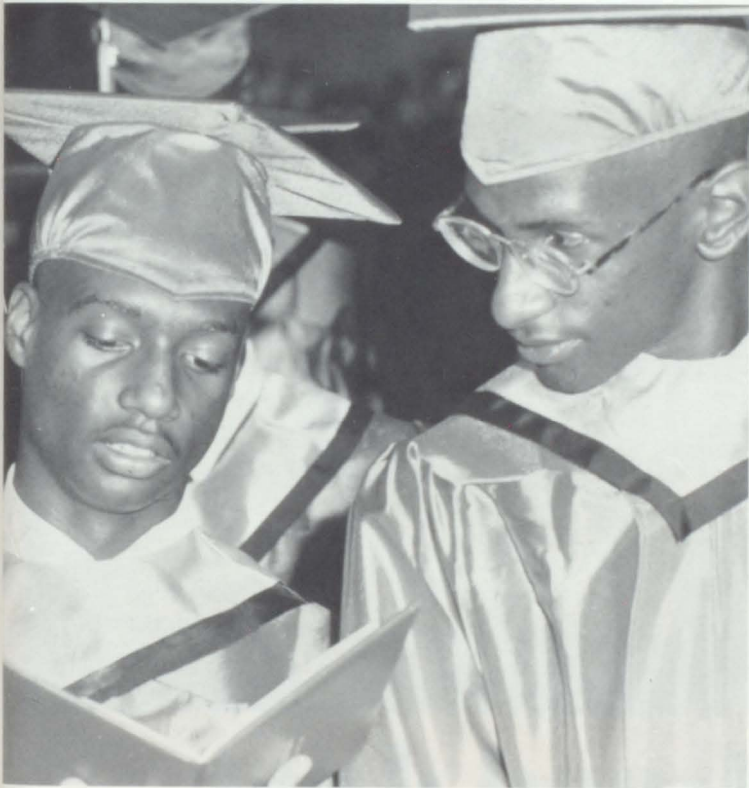

Yesterday!!!!!!

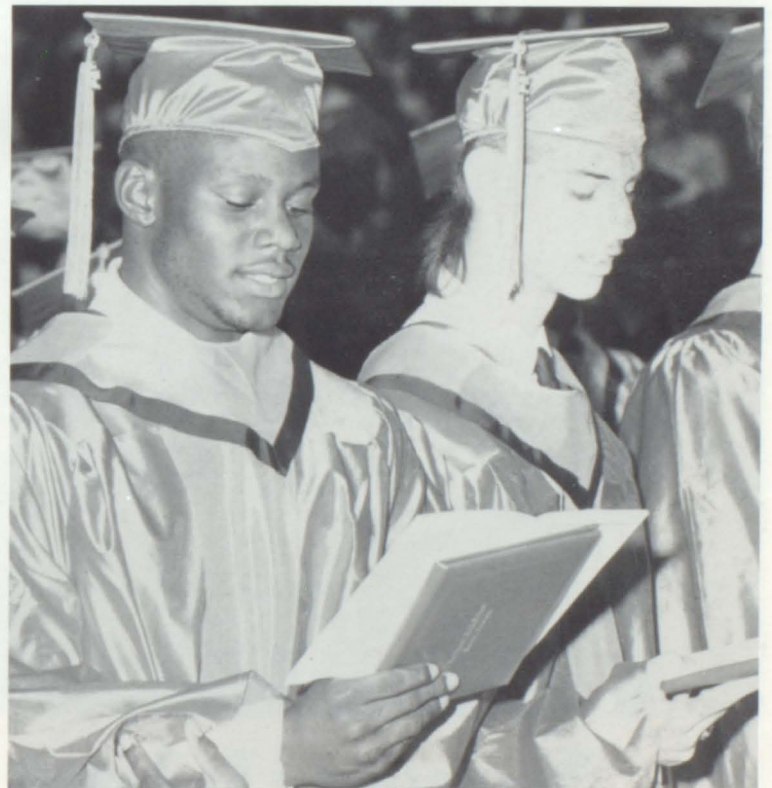

Class Speakers sing for the final time the alma mater.

Mr. Johnson speaks his speech of congrats to all grads.

Some graduates show more gratitude to their diplomas than the song.

Fellow grads sing their final good-byes!

Something Good Just Keeps Getting BETTER!
